

Kiez kids A cool Berlin gift for children is Leoni geht streiten, a short film and game created by Joachim Mühleisen that playfully addresses personal and social conflict around Helmholtzplatz, Prenzlauer Berg. After watching the film about Leoni's struggles to get her lost ball back, children (from five years old) can themselves retrace the tasks and challenges faced by Leoni in the film. The cute, hand-made box set including film, ball and game can be ordered online or found in shops around Helmholtzplatz for €29. www.vitascope.de
